1. Read and annotate How to Read Literature Like a Professor
    a. There are copies available at the school (if we are able to access them -- email me), but you will not be able to write in school copies.
    b. The version on Audible is an older edition (I made this mistake last year).
2. Read a book from the following list:
    c. http://www.bbc.co.uk/arts/bigread/top100.shtml
    d. The book must be by a British author. Not all of the books on the list are! Double check before you start reading!
    e. You may not read a book you have read for another English class.
    f. Some of these books have mature themes. Please read reviews of the books before you select one.

3. Once you have read (or as you read) your choice book, find 10-15 passages that exemplify Foster's advice from How to Read Literature Like a Professor. For each passage choice, write a brief, clear, specific analysis of why this passage is such a good example of Foster's suggestions. Each analysis should be around 30-60 words. Make sure you format and cite in MLA. Provide the passage from the text (does not count toward the 30-60 word analysis). Make sure you give a heading to each analysis then add the MLA citation. You must have a Works Cited page.

Remember – you are entering a college class. The expectations are higher. Your work should show great thought, analysis, and effort. DE has a strict late work policy so make sure to hand all work in on time.

This will be counted as a Summative Assessment grade.

On Tuesday, 9/8 by 11:59pm, you are expected to upload to Canvas:

- ✔ Your 10-15 passages with the explanations detailing your analysis (12 pt font, Times New Roman, double spaced with in-text citations and a Works Cited page)
