PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- First Graduating Class 2020
- Project Based Learning
- Rigorous College Course Work
- STEM/CTE Course Pathways
- Capstone Experience
- Advanced Studies Diploma

MISSION To provide our students with a rigorous learning environment which inspires and develops self-directed paths to college success and in-demand careers through the integration of project-based learning, college-level coursework, STEM, and Career and Technical Education.

VISION To be a dynamic community that works to solve real-world problems through the development and application of creative, agile, and critical thinking, collaboration and authentic leadership.

Program Details

Rigorous College Coursework Our students experience rigorous college level academics through dual-enrollment (DE) courses with Northern Virginia Community College. Students have opportunities to earn DE credit in all core content, world languages, and CTE courses.

Project Based Learning Project Based Learning (PBL) is an instructional method that enables and encourages students to become self-directed inquirers of content and skills through active exploration of real-world challenges and problems. At Arlington Tech, students engage in PBL in all coursework.

STEM/CTE Pathways The Arlington Tech program is designed to integrate core academics with Career and Technical Education (CTE) courses to provide creative and authentic learning opportunities, develop professional skills, and engage in career exploration.

Culminating Capstone Experience The 12th grade Capstone Experience is a work-based opportunity that serves as the culmination of a student's cross-curricular project-based learning and career development. A gateway to apply knowledge and technical expertise in an industry setting. Students have many options to gain experience via internships, project consultancy, or serving as the principal in a research project.
