

English 12 Dual Enrollment
Summer Opportunities for Excellence 2022
Antares Leask (antares.leask@apsva.us)

1. Read and annotate How to Read Literature Like a Professor
 - a. There are copies available at the school, but you will not be able to write in school copies.

- b. The version on Audible is an older edition (I made this mistake last year).

2. Read a book from the following list:

- c. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/arts/bigread/top100.shtml>
- d. The book must be by a British author. Not all of the books on the list are!
Double check before you start reading!
- e. You may not read a book you have read for another English class.
- f. Some of these books have mature themes. Please read reviews of the books before you select one. www.doesthedogdie.com is a good resource for crowd-sourced content warnings.

3. Once you have read (or as you read) your choice book, find 10-15 passages that exemplify Foster's advice from How to Read Literature Like a Professor. For each passage choice, write a brief, clear, specific analysis of why this passage is such a good example of Foster's suggestions. Each analysis should be around 30-60 words. Make sure you format and cite in MLA. Provide the passage from the text (does not count toward the 30-60 word analysis). Make sure you give a heading to each analysis then add the MLA citation. You must have an MLA Works Cited page.

Remember – you are entering a college class. The expectations are higher. Your work should show great thought, analysis, and effort.

This will be counted as comparable to a Summative Assessment grade.

On Wednesday, 9/12 by 8:00 pm, you are expected to upload to Canvas:

- ✓ Your 10-15 passages with the explanations detailing your analysis (12 pt font, Times New Roman, double spaced with in-text citations and a Works Cited page)

For help with MLA citations and formatting, visit OWL Purdue MLA Formatting and Style Guide website:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/mla_style/mla_formatting_and_style_guide/mla_formatting_and_style_guide.html

Examples of Formats for Assignment Submission:

Passage from Hale (with in-text citations)	Analysis

OR

Passage from Hale (with in-text citations):

Analysis: